

SAN JUAN CITY ART EXHIBIT OPENING & RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY

Following the rice sale kickoff, Mayor Francis Zamora and Assistant Secretary Sharlene Zabala-Batin, Tourism Digitalization and Resource Generation (TDRG) and Concurrent Regional Director, DOT-NCR, formally opened the San Juan City Art Exhibit with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The exhibit featured artists primarily from San Juan City, with guest artists from Makati, Manila, Caloocan, and Quezon City. The collection includes paintings, mixed media artworks, and fashion designs from two renowned San Juan-based designers. Additionally, an artwork created by a San Juan City Person Deprived of Liberty (PDL) was also on display, highlighting the transformative power of art.

The exhibit which ran for one week was aimed to showcase the creativity and cultural richness of local artists while celebrating National Arts Month.

"San Juan City takes great pride in supporting our local artists and fostering a vibrant arts community. This exhibit not only showcases exceptional talent but also strengthens our cultural identity as a city," Mayor Zamora expressed.
